After decades of service and scholarship on the Rutgers University Camden Campus and in the Department of Chemistry, our friend and colleague, Professor Sidney A. Katz, is celebrating his retirement.

Please join our gracious co-host, Sid, and his friends in the Department of Chemistry for a reception

Thursday, March 27, 2008
Camden Campus Center Lounge
3:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Please forward $5.00 per person as your RSVP commitment to attend.

You may consider marking this special occasion by making a gift in Sid's honor to the Chemistry Alumni Scholarship – a fund Sid initiated to support chemistry students.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Georgia Arbuckle-Keil
